In memory of Pat Kelly

Irish (of course) CDs, "Irish Flax Growers List" and "Irish Source Records 1500s-1800s" have been added to MGS' library. They were purchased with donations made by MGS friends: Pat Allan, Mary Bole, Bonnie Bridge, Joyce Elias, Lorna Karman, Walt McCaw, John McCrindle, Rick McLellan, Connie McLeod, Hazel Runchey, Jim Rutherford, Louisa Shermerhorn, Kathy Stokes. An apology to anyone whose name was not recorded. Thanks to all.

In the last issue of Generations we had a column entitled "Pioneer Royalty". It was from a small newsletter entitled Town and Farm that was mailed out with the Manitoba Hydro Bills covering the dates 1946 until 1955. Manitoba Hydro gave us permission to reprint them in Generations and the Manitoba Electrical Museum and Education Centre donated a complete set. One list will appear in each copy of Generations. We thank Manitoba Hydro for this.

Dauphin Branch of MGS Celebrates 25 years

In September members of the Dauphin Branch of Manitoba Genealogical Society will be celebrating the 25th anniversary of their Branch, Jean Tucker, a 'Founding Member' of the Manitoba Genealogical Society, decided that because of the three and a half hour travel distance between Winnipeg and Dauphin, it would be helpful to have a Branch organization at Dauphin and proceeded to try to locate people with similar interests by submitting to interviews with local media and arranging for a meeting place. In September of 1979 an organizational meeting was set up at the old Dauphin Public Library Boardroom resulting in fourteen additional members signing up for membership in MGS and fifteen persons signed the application for Charter. Six members were from Dauphin, two from Laurier, one from Ste. Rose du Lac, four from Roblin and two from San Clara. Eleanor Anderson was voted in as President, Violet Leslie as Secretary-Treasurer, and Jean Tucker took on the task of Special Projects Chairperson. In the next few months we attracted other members from the Dauphin area although those from Roblin dropped out and attempted to form their own Branch.

While Eleanor and Vi took on the housekeeping tasks of the new organization, Jean proceeded to get members involved in collecting materials suitable for our research resource centre. Indexing obituaries from the local newspaper was begun and once that process was established and current, it was decided to proceed to indexing all Dauphin's newspapers on microfilm. The microfilm reader and microfilm itself were housed at the Parkland Regional Library in a different building from the Public Library and with limited hours. This made access by members difficult. Vi Leslie undertook to lobby the Parkland Library to have the microfilm and reader moved to the Dauphin Public Library making for easier access by genealogists and the public at large. Eleanor Anderson, Jean Tucker, Maureen Borne and Evelyn Ayers began and completed the incredible task of transcribing and indexing the obits. Once the index was current Eleanor continued the indexing until she moved away and now Judy McCorvie keeps the index up to date. While the obit index was underway, the group undertook to transcribe Dauphin's Riverside cemetery. This too, was a massive undertaking for such a small group of local members. Many 'cemetery picnics' were held before the job was up to date. Then the group proceeded to transcribe all cemeteries in Dauphin municipality and adjoining municipalities. Shirle McGimpsey, Marilyn Strang, Marcelle Sul, Pierette Labelle, Yvette Therrian, Jean Tucker, Margaret Scrase, Jean Rosenkrantz, Eleanor Anderson and Evelyn Ayers, along with other volunteers, did yeomen's service to accomplish this task as soon as possible. Several years later and a few years before her untimely death, Evelyn Ayers coordinated efforts with the Riverside cemetery clerk to bring both cemetery records and transcriptions up to date. This has greatly improved access to Riverside cemetery records.

In the autumn of 1982, we discovered that a number of us were interested in visiting the Resource Centre at Salt Lake City in Utah. In November of 1982 Jean Tucker was President and Faye Hickey was Vice President, with Elaine Froese Secretary Treasurer. This trio along with other members worked together on plans to achieve this goal. Faye used her expertise and 'connections' to take care of the transportation. Jean took care of personal contacts and administering other Branch activities. At first it was to be a bus trip then it was suggested that if there were a few more going we could get a per person rate to fly at not much greater cost than the proposed bus trip. At this point we opened it up to MGS members from Winnipeg and other Manitoba Branches. In April 1983 fourteen eager family historians took off for an interesting and productive, for most, research adventure.

In 1984, bolstered by our successful research endeavor the previous year, we allowed ourselves to be convinced to host the 1984 MGS Seminar. Jean used her contacts to obtain access to the Multipurpose room at the Dauphin Regional Comprehensive Secondary School and a grant of money from the Town of Dauphin Council. Students from the Art Department at DRCSS were invited to participate in a competition to produce the advertising poster for the event. A local student, Ragi Elias was the successful contestant. MGS provided an excellent guest speaker in Colin Chapman and everything came together with very few problems. The DRCSS was an excellent meeting place, displays were ready, the food was taken care of, the hotels had all been canvassed for the best rates and access to the venue and entertainment had been acquired, including a 'yesterday's fashion show' coordinated by Shirle McGimpsey and Marilyn Strang. With such an enthusiastic group taking care of every detail that came to mind, our expectations of a successful event were high.

The plans were all submitted to MGS council to review following which we received a rather strange phone call from the president of MGS. "Jean, what are you doing about transportation?"

"What do you mean?" Jean asked. "How will people get to the Seminar venue?"

"I expect that most will drive and stay at a motel", was the reply.

"But what about those who arrive by bus?"

"Well, the bus depot is about 2 blocks from the nearest hotel and the DRCSS is about 3 blocks from the nearest hotel and Dauphin does have a couple of Taxi companies", Jean replied. It was obvious that the folk in Winnipeg hadn't travelled much beyond the Perimeter to smaller town Manitoba. We had some educating to do!

When we discussed this perceived 'problem' at a meeting, someone asked Jean why she hadn't told MGS Council we'd send a 'dog team' to pick them up. If the cost hadn't been prohibitive, we did consider hiring a local farmer to hitch a team of horses to his 'surrey with the fringe on top', but didn't want to be too disdainful of the slight implied in this innocent question. The seminar came and went and was a great success. People continue to ask why we don't host another just like it. The answer is that several of our former great workers and organizers have died, and others have grown older with less energy to expend!

Our Branch acquired a grant for the purpose of purchasing a microfilm reader-printer to be housed in the newly built library. Also, we purchased a room divider, storage and filing cabinets, a work table and two chairs. Today we house our resources in four cabinets at the combined Parkland Regional Library and Dauphin Public Library. We have updated copies of cemetery transcriptions from Dauphin and neighboring municipalities, we have indexed all the obituaries in Dauphin newspapers from 1896 to the present and have begun to acquire the microfilm for Grandview and Gilbert Plains newspapers and are beginning to index them. We are looking for volunteers to continue this project. Jean has extracted marriage info from local newspapers 1896 - 1920 and Judy is putting the info on index cards. We have acquired reels of Canada Census for Manitoba from 1870 -1901 and have numerous years of Henderson Directories. A project to convert the obit index cards to computer disc was attempted . Many members including Allan and Shirley Gray, Margaret Scrase, Janet McIver and others already mentioned spent countless hours in the effort which had to be abandoned due to member fatigue and a diminishing membership roster. Over the years, we have purchased many useful research help books and have had a number of books donated by members and local authors. A number of cemetery transcriptions from Ontario are on permanent loan, as are a number of completed family histories. Because of our limited space, we concentrate on acquiring local resources not easily available elsewhere and on materials of specific interest to members. We have had many excellent guest speakers including Elizabeth Briggs, Stella Hrynkiw, Harriet Eslinger and representatives from UEL and MGS Council, including Florence Cox, Ruth Breckman, Kathy Stokes and Jane Daly come and share their expertise with us. Also, we have been fortunate to have local expert Judy Beer, Deputy Registrar of Court of Queens Bench and local authors Elsie Lesyk and Joe Robertson share their expertise. The more experienced family historian members frequently have shared their knowledge with all members. We have arranged tours of other resource facilities to give new members a chance to see what is out there and members have attended many seminars to try to educate ourselves. During the past twenty-five years, we have publicized our existence by setting up displays in the local mall, public library and museum and at Heritage Days events. Bonnie Bicklmeier and Mary Bos lent their talents to a permanent display board. Margaret, Jean, Marilyn, Shirle, Carolyn and Connie have all submitted to interviews in the local media. We have raised money by holding bake sales, yard sales, raffles, making and selling perogies, and holding suppers. We produced a 'queries' book and sold copies at one of the seminars we attended. In more recent years we have decided not to spend a day baking and a day selling the baking but have started the tradition of a 'bakeless bake sale', cut out the middleman and donate the estimated amount of the cost of supplies to do the baking ($10 -$20 each) and no work! This has been quite successful.

Although only the long time members have been mentioned here, we are grateful to all the members who joined for shorter periods of time and made significant contributions during their membership. We dearly miss Vi Leslie, Evelyn Ayers, John Whitmore, Mary Bos, and Bonnie Bicklmeier who have passed on to their reward and we are so grateful to have had the benefit of their friendship and expertise during their lifetimes. We have a number of new, enthusiastic members, many of whom, like us in former years, have families and full time jobs. We hope they will take the help we have to offer them and 'give back' by staying to help continue our tradition of helping each other add more resources to our centre.

We are hoping that our 25th anniversary party on September 25th will be a successful reunion of old friends and former members and an opportunity for former and present members to join together in a celebration of our twenty five years of accomplishments. Come and join with us in this celebration, but please let us know your intentions by the beginning of September. We look forward to many more years of 'digging up our roots' and 'hunting for-bears'.

More Than A Name and Dates-The Margaret Ellen Colbert Story

Alan Campbell MGS No. 3977

While tracing the Colbert family, a collateral line to my Campbell line, I was told the story behind the name and dates for Margaret Ellen Colbert. Margaret's niece, Alice (Colbert) Hiscock passed on to me this oral tradition about Margaret when my wife and I visited her while on a genealogical research trip to the western provinces.

Margaret, the daughter of John and Sarah (Campbell) Colbert, married a Treffry and lived at Rapid City. She was a dressmaker. Alice remembers her father telling her that he was enlisted as a model at the age of 8, to his dissatisfaction, so that Margaret could work on the dresses. By 1923, Margaret was living in Transcona with Samuel Reid. The speculation was that Treffry had died. Samuel Reid was a music teacher. The family moved to the USA, where it was found that Margaret had tuberculosis. She was deported to Canada while the rest of the family stayed in the USA. Alice's father, Alfred, met the train when she came back and took her to live with friends at Rat Portage. She spent her last years at Ninette Sanitorium, where she died 15 May 1935. Alice provided a specific birth date, 4th September 1883, as well.

Another niece, Christina (Colbert) Venning, had a postcard labelled as a picture of Margaret Ellen Treffry while she was living at Edwin, Manitoba. As well, she had a postcard from a member of another collateral line, the Youngs, addressed to Mrs. M. Treffry, Winnipeg. A third niece, Esther (Colbert) Bradley offered the information that the Reid family had moved to Ontario, Oregon.

Two marriages in a short period of time, the contracting of tuberculosis and deportation from the USA were enough "facts" to get me interested in checking to see how true the story was. Where would I start? I decided that I would see if there was a death record for Margaret. Along with a cover letter from Christina Venning, I mailed a request to Manitoba Vital Statistics for a copy of Margaret's death record. Upon receipt of it, I found that the death date was accurate and the birth date that I had been given was also on the certificate. It confirmed that her death had taken place at Ninette Sanitorium and provided the additional information that she had been buried at Belmont, near Ninette.

The certificate noted that she had been at Ninette Sanitorium for two years and eight months. As well, it provided the information that she had been in Manitoba for four years and 6 months prior to her death.<sup>1</sup> This information would suggest that if there was a deportation from the USA it would have occurred in 1930. Her place of birth was given as Kenora, Ontario. Lastly the death record indicated that she had contracted the tuberculosis in Oregon.

Where would I go next? I decided to try to find her birth record since it was in Ontario and would be easy to access since I have a Family History Center close to my home. A systematic search of the Ontario Births' index and the appropriate microfilm did not turn up the record. I regrouped and decided to check the 1930 US census since her death certificate suggested that she was out of the province for part of 1930. Using the Ancestry.com website via the Family History Center's subscription, I was able to find the entry for Margaret and Samuel Reid in Ontario Precinct No. 3, Malheur, Oregon. They had four children, Eileen, age 15, Alexander, age 14, John, age 9, and Adrienne, age 4. Samuel was listed as a music teacher. They had immigrated to the USA in 1927.<sup>2</sup> More of the story was proven accurate. Even the names of the oldest children matched those of family oral tradition.

Unsure of whether there would be a deportation order removing her from the USA, or if so where it would be found, I decided to go in another direction. I contacted the Rural Municipality of Strathcona to see if there was a record of her burial in a Belmont cemetery. A reply from the municipality noted that the burial records for Ninette Sanitorium were destroyed in a fire at the undertakers. The municipality did have the information that Margaret was buried in Belmont Cemetery on 17 May 1935 but had no idea where the grave was.<sup>3</sup> A contact with the legislative librarian at the Legislative Library of Manitoba provided the information that the annual reports for the Sanitorium did not list or mention any patients' names so that they did not prove to be a source of information.<sup>4</sup>

As I was debating my next research move, I learned that the government of Manitoba was putting basic information about early birth, marriage and death records on-line in a searchable database. With eager anticipation, I conducted searches for Margaret's birth record and the records of two possible marriages. I was a happy researcher when I found her birth registered on 20 November 1883 at Rat Portage (born 4 September 1883)<sup>5</sup>, a marriage to a Jacob Treffrey on 22 October 1902 at Winnipeg,<sup>6</sup> and a marriage to Samuel Jamieson Reid on 13 November 1913 at Robertson Memorial Church in Winnipeg<sup>7</sup> (some of this information came from the photocopies of the records, not all of this information was accessible on-line). Two helpful clues on the registration for the second marriage that support the conjecture that this was the same Margaret were the indication that the bride's name was Margaret Ellen Treffry and that she was listed as a widow. Once I found the two marriages, I decided to try to find a death record for Jacob in Manitoba between the years 1906 and 1913. Even by using as many variations of the surname as possible and pulling up all possible surname references, I was unable to find a death record for Jacob during that time period. Knowing that divorced women would sometimes refer to themselves as widows, I contacted the Archives of Manitoba. A research assistant there provided the information that there was no record of a Treffry/Colbert divorce. Prior to 1917, getting a divorce required an Act of Parliament.

As an aside, I was initially puzzled by the reference to both Kenora and Rat Portage as Margaret's place of birth. When puzzled, seek an answer. I checked my copy of Place Names of Ontario and discovered that they were one and the same. I also found that Rat Portage was considered part of Manitoba from 1882-1884, so that was probably why Margaret's birth was recorded in Manitoba instead of Ontario.<sup>8</sup>

I decided to backtrack and find out more information about Jacob and Margaret. In checking the Western Land Grants database on the National Archives of Canada website, I found a Jacob Treffry listed as the grant holder for the SE ¼ section 16, township 11, range 8, W1. Using the land information given, a search of the 1906 census found Jacob and Margaret living at Edwin, Manitoba on section 16, township 11, range 8, west of the Prime Meridian. They had four horses, three milch cows, 6 head of cattle and seventeen hogs or pigs.<sup>9</sup> The next step was to send a request to the Manitoba Provincial Archives for a copy of Jacob's homestead records. These records provided the date of entry on the SE quarter as 19 July 1892. By 1896 he had broken 27 acres and had 17 of them under cultivation. He had spent some time over this period of time off his homestead working as a labourer. Jacob received his patent 25 March 1897.<sup>10</sup>

A Treffry query placed in Generations, Vol. 28, No. 1, March 2003 led to contact from Myrna Mackey, who offered to conduct research for me. She found Jacob in the 1901 census living in Ward 5, Winnipeg, and working as a flour mill cleaner.<sup>11</sup> This information matched his declaration that he was off the land during the time he was perfecting his entry. Perhaps he was working off the farm in order to raise money for mortgage payments or to make improvements. Myrna was able to find a quit claim deed which showed that on 6 November 1906, Jacob signed over the east half of section 16 and the northwest quarter of section 36, township 10, range 10, west of Prime Meridian to Fawcett Taylor, barrister at law<sup>12</sup>, due to receiving a notice of power of sale from William James Cooper who carried a mortgage on the property.<sup>13</sup> This information about the ownership of other land came as a surprise. A letter to the Portage Land Registry Office brought the following information. Jacob had purchased the NE ¼ section 16, township 11, range 8, W1 on 15 July 1904. He had also purchased the NW ¼ section 26, township 10, range 10 west of W1 on 18 November 1905.

Jacob had taken out a number of mortgages on these properties and had not paid any of them off which precipitated the notice of power of sale. The east ½ section 16, township 11, range 8, W1 was put up for sale at public auction on 29 December 1906.

What led to the loss of the three properties? Myrna, in talking to a resident of the Edwin area in 2003, found that he was making raised beds for gardening because the soil was light and blew away easily. He noted that there was a lot of erosion in the area. Perhaps this was the reason that Jacob lost the farms.

After the land sale, Jacob disappeared from records and quite possibly from Margaret's life. Margaret appeared to "soldier on" as she is listed in the 1913 Henderson Directory for Winnipeg, Mrs. Margaret E. Treffrey living at 546 Flora Street in Winnipeg (her father's home). She was working as a stenographer at George F. Stevens & Company.<sup>14</sup> In the same year, she married Samuel Reid.

Obviously I have further research to do. Did Jacob move out of Manitoba? Did he die outside the province of Manitoba? About seven years separate the land sale and Margaret's marriage to Samuel. Did she have Jacob declared legally dead? Will there be a deportation record on file for Margaret in the United States? What happened to the rest of the family who stayed in the United States? What was life like living at Ninette Sanitorium?

Going beyond the facts, I wonder if her family was there for her during her stay in Ninette Sanitorium. She must have had a lot of spunk to survive the challenges that life handed her! Her story caught my attention and then "asked" to be told. I am still "hooked" and will be engaging in further research!

A MANITOBA MYSTERY

By Kathy Stokes

The Winnipeg Free Press of 28 October 1918 carried a major front page story of a tragedy at sea, the worst in the history of the Pacific Coast of Canada. The ship Princess Sophia left Skagway, Alaska on 23 October, bound for Vancouver with a total of 346 hands aboard. Along the journey, they hit a severe snowstorm and, as a result, sailed off course. On the 24th, the ship hit Vanderbilt reef on the Lynn Canal and was stuck there for more than ten hours, but thought to be in no immediate danger. Other boats tried to respond to the Sophia's distress call, and the Princess Alice was dispatched from Vancouver to pick up the passengers. However, the seas were too rough for lifeboats to be launched or transfers to be made from the Sophia to the Alice. And then a message was received that the Sophia was sinking, having been driven off the reef into deep water by the winds. The bottom of the ship shattered and water poured in. There were no survivors, but the ships nearby began the task of picking up the bodies from the sea.

Identification was not easy as many of the passengers had not listed their home towns. However, at least one person with Winnipeg roots was mentioned ; Mrs. A. M. Ironsides of Dawson, Yukon had a daughter, Mrs. E.W.M. James of 445 Rosedale Ave., Winnipeg. Mrs. Ironsides resided with E. W. Ironsides (who may have been her husband or her son) at Dawson. Mr. Ironsides was a customs collector there.

While transcribing burial information from the church records for St. Mary the Prairie Anglican in Portage la Prairie, I came across some burials which set me to investigating the Princess Sophia and her fate. The records noted that on 20 June 1919, more than six months after the ship sank, a family from the ship was buried at Hillside Cemetery in Portage la Prairie.

The family's surname was MC DONALD. William Herbert, 42 years old was the father and the children were Unis, 12 years, Russell, 10 years and Ruth, 5 years.

Does anyone have any information about this family? Where was the mother? Where in the area did the family live? Were there any other children who were not traveling at that time on the Princess Sophia? Why did it take so long for the family to be buried? Please write to us if you can help solve this mystery.

BOOK REVIEW

Geoff Lambert

I have offered to submit regular reviews of recent library acquisitions. I am assuming that the main interest of readers would be in having a summary of the contents of a book and a few notes as to how it might strengthen your genealogical research, or your writing of a family history. If you have any thoughts on this, please let me know. It is hoped and intended that these reviews will be as useful as possible.

The book I have looked at this time is basically "contextual". That is, it provides context for a family history.

Why the Women Only Wept: Loyalist Refugee Women in Eastern Ontario, by Janice Potter-MacKinnon (McGill-Queens University Press, 1995, 199 pages.) Library EAST CAN 971.024 WHI

This work tells the story of women's contributions to the settlement of Loyalists in Eastern Ontario. It covers the role of women during the American Revolutionary War, the preparations for exile, and the hardships of settlement. The book is written from a feminist perspective, though not an extreme one, pointing out (correctly) that women have received rather short shrift in earlier accounts of Loyalist settlement. In fact, to use a term in current use, they "multi-tasked". It is always salutary to recollect how hardy pioneers have to be.

The book does not overly romanticize either the Loyalist or the Patriot side. Instead it paints a picture of people being forced to make choices, sometimes very painful ones. The Patriots were not always, or often, the saintly figures Mel Gibson would have us believe. And the Loyalists' affection for King George III was frequently more muted than historical accounts sometimes suggest.

I would say that the author writes well, but could have used better organization. The book was published with assistance from the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC) which means that it has been refereed by academics (and also tells you where some of your tax money goes.) It may be a little dry for some readers. It is, one assumes, intended for an academic audience. But don't let that put you off.

Incidentally, the author was a professor of history at the University of Saskatchewan who became Minister of Finance in the provincial government.

Doing Ontario Research at the MGS Resource Center

By Mary Bole, MGS Librarian

The following is a guide for volunteers and patrons using the MGS Resource Center Library. It is far from complete; we have other resources you could also try. To find the other resources search the card catalog under Ontario, the name of the county, the name of the township, or the name of the city/town. The library has records of approximately 450 Ontario cemeteries and 100 local history books. We also have a number of periodicals from various branches of the Ontario Genealogical Society. Remember this is just a guide.

NINETTE CEMETERY

In the December 2003 issue of Generations, we issued a request for information about records from the Ninette Sanitorium of people who had died there and been buried in the Ninette Cemetery.

Chris Irwin kindly volunteered some information. Many of those who died at Ninette Sanitorium were buried at the Belmont Cemetery, which is not far from Ninette. No gravestones mark their resting places. Chris mentioned also that at one time a professor at Brandon University had a number of records from the sanitorium, but what happened to those records is not known.

RURAL RAMBLINGS

By Kathy Stokes

From the Manitoba Free Press 11 Jan. 1897:

Alexander SCOTT, butter maker from Hamiota, eldest son of William Scott of Red River Creameries, and Sarah LUMSDEN, 3rd daughter of G. Lumsden of St. Eustache were married Thursday, 5 Jan. at St. Eustache parish church. Rev. Father Martin, parish priest, by dispensation of the archbishop, performed the matrimonial rite which was honoured by a large attendance of French Canadian and Metis residents, among whom the young couple had spent many years of their childhood. There were also present, of course, the Kenneys, the Loneys and a goodly contingent of the friendly clans - Mc Dougals, Mc Donalds and Mc Kinnons of Glengarry. Adjutor Pickard was groomsman and Miss Lumsden, sister of the bride performed duties of the bridesmaid. The entire wedding party was handsomely entertained by William Burke, proprietor of the cheese factory, at his residence during the forenoon, till dinner was spread at the home of the bride's parents. On the afternoon of Friday, the 8th, the happy couple left on the western express for their home in Hamiota.

From the Manitoba Free Press, 23 Jan. 1897:

Thursday, the 21st January, the Hon. Senator and Mrs. Sutherland reached the 50th anniversary of their wedding day and their well known homestead at Kildonan was the scene of a family celebration. The family is large and when children and grandchildren assembled along with guests, even the large house was not too spacious.

The children present were sons Donald, Morrison, Hector, Angus, James M. and Ross and daughter Mrs. J. H. Gunn. Children unable to attend were Mrs. W. R.

Black of Carman and Dr. W. R. D. Sutherland of Stony Mountain (his wife and family were present). Others in attendance were John Hugh Gunn, Alex Munro, Miss Katherine Kirchhoffer of Brandon and Rev. R. G. McBeth of Winnipeg.

There was a bride's cake which on its several sides were the family name and dates Jan. 21, 1847 - Jan. 21, 1897. Toasts were given and replied to. After the tables were cleared memories of old Red River times were recalled by dances peculiar to the early days.

From the Winnipeg Free Press 3 October 1933:

A large crowd of friends and relatives attended the funeral of the late Robert Pender SHANKS who died Friday 29 September 1933 at the farm of his son, J. R. W Shanks, about five miles from Rivers at the age of 95 years. Burial took place at the Uplands Cemetery with Dr. Scott of Oak River conducting the service.

The late Mr. Shanks was born at Pollockshaws near Glasgow, Scotland on Sept. 5, 1838. He worked in a flax mill owned by his father until he lost an arm in an accident when but a lad of 16 years. He came to Canada in 1857 and lived in the vicinity of Acton, Ontario. He attended an academy at Georgetown where he got a teacher's certificate. He married Maria Rutledge in 1859 and taught in Ontario until 1887. He came west in the spring of 1888. Mr. Shanks taught at Little Saskatchewan, Wheatland and Uplands schools and was pensioned in 1903.

Of four children, three girls and one boy, the three girls predeceased him. His wife died in 1889 and is buried at Uplands with their youngest daughter, Mrs. Henderson. Pallbearers for R. P. Shanks were Thomas Shanks of Pettapiece, Albert and Ivan Shanks of Lothair, Alvin Shanks of Rivers, Mervyn Henderson of Rivers and Lloyd Spinks.

ARE THESE YOUR ANCESTORS?

By Kathy Stokes

Summer is here and many people head to "the lake", "the beach", or "the cottage" for their vacation, or for the entire summer if they are lucky. Even in the early days of Winnipeg, this tradition was followed by a number of families who went, not to a lake some distance from the city, but to one of spots along the Red River, south of the settled part of Winnipeg in an area known as River Park. Such was the popularity of this spot in the park that it had a name, Fern Glen and in 1895, Mayor Parker of Winnipeg decided that a census of the area was desirable. The population count was some 200 people who lived in tents given whimsical names by their owners who called the area "White City" after the colour of the tents. And who were those early day campers and what did they call their summer residences?
