PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE [Kathy Stokes]

Does it seem that you have had one more issue of 'Generations' than usual this year? You are correct and let me explain why. In the past, three issues in a calendar year were mailed within that year and the fourth was mailed in the January following. So, for instance, you would get Spring, Summer and Fall 1986 in the year 1986, but your Winter 1986 issue would come in late January or early February 1987. We have changed all that this year and in 1987, you should have received the Winter 1986 issue, plus the four 1987 ones. This will result in better service to new members, some of whom joined perhaps five months before they received a copy of 'Generations'. Elsewhere in this issue appears deadlines for copy for inclusion in 1988 'Generations'. This issue is also a "housecleaning" one in which our very capable Editor, Thelma Findlay, hopes to publish all the bits and pieces in her files.

Your Executive and Council are busy these days seeking out funding sources and applying for grants to keep the M.G.S. Office open and to provide further resources and equipment. The Manitoba Heritage Federation has, in past years, generously given us money for our microfilm reader/printer and our computer (among other things). This year, one of our requests will be for a video camera, VCR and small TV to assist in our publicity and education programs. Each M.G.S. Branch is also applying to the Heritage Federation for assistance with specific projects. In addition, we have once again made application to the Provincial Department of Culture, Heritage and Recreation for an operating grant to run the M.G.S. Office.

MAY I TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY ON BEHALF OF THE M.G.S. COUNCIL TO WISH EACH OF YOU THE COMPLIMENTS OF THE HOLIDAY SEASON!

Kathleen N. Stokes

EDITOR'S MESSAGE [Thelma Findlay]

1987 has been a challenging and rewarding year! As when anyone assumes new responsibilities, one also faces anxiety and anticipation! Volume 12, Nos. 1-4 have now been completed and with each issue - the continued growth of 'Generations'. As the Editor of the journal, I have strived to enrich the reader with genealogical knowledge that could guide them on their trek - and shall continue in this journalistic quest.

Through the year, many items accumulated in my folders and this issue will be a condensation of this information collected. YOU are welcome to correspond with this Editor and share YOUR helpful hints or YOUR genealogical successes and so on.

May I extend a sincere personal THANKS to all those who have contributed to 'Generations' in 1987 through various avenues (eg. mailings, article submissions, proofing, encouragement, etc.).

WISHING YOU ALL A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR IN 1988!

Thelma

MANITOBA GOLF COURSES

J. Alan HACKETT is researching and compiling the history of Winnipeg's early golf courses of the past and present. The final edition will include items such as when the game first made its appearance in Manitoba in 1889, when Col. Samuel BEDSON, first Warden of Stony Mountain Penitentiary, established a nine-hole course near the prison. In 1892, the Virden Golf Club was formed by a group of Scotsmen who had settled in the area. A Mr. C.J. THOMPSON was elected president and captain of the newly formed club. The following year, Mr. Thompson sent a fellow countryman, John HARRISON, to the city with the idea of promoting a golf club in Winnipeg and in 1894, the Winnipeg Golf Club was formed, situated on the banks of the Red River in Norwood. 90 years of golf in Winnipeg along with 200 photos will be found on the pages of this book. The "Early Golf Professionals" who came from Britain to Western Canada to seek a position with a first-class club will also be noted. Any old photos of Manitoba's golf courses and/or photos of individuals of bygone days who patronized these courses are welcome. Write To: Mr. J.A. Hackett, 401-3200 Portage Avenue, Winnipeg, Mb. M.G.S. SEMINAR 1988

The Brandon Branch of the Manitoba Genealogical Society is hosting the 1988 Seminar. The Agricultural Centre, Brandon, Manitoba is booked for October 14, 15 & 16, 1988. A committee of members of the Brandon Branch is working on obtaining speakers and deciding the program. They are hoping to highlight Irish Research; L.D.S. Records at Salt Lake; and American Research. Should YOU have any ideas, please forward them to: Seminar Committee, c/o Brandon Branch, M.G.S., Box 1332, Brandon, Mb. R7A 6N2.

CAN YOU HELP? OLD SEMINAR BROCHURES: The Manitoba Genealogical Society would like copies of the brochures used at past Society seminars, as the Society's Archives are incomplete. OTHER MATERIAL: If you are considering getting rid of past issues of Generations, consider donating them back to the Manitoba Genealogical Society - accepted with great appreciation.

WHERE DO YOU FIT IN?

Some keep their organization strong,
While others join, just to belong.
Some volunteer and do their share,
While others rest and never care.
On meeting days, some always show,
While some there are who never go.
Some always pay their dues ahead,
Some get behind for months instead.
Some do their best; some build, some make,
Some never do - just sit and take.
Some lag behind, just let things go,
And never help their group to grow.
Some drag; some pull. Some don't; some do.
Consider pardner! WHICH ARE YOU?

Author of the words to the left is unknown.

Many, many thanks to the following individuals who helped with the mailing process of the September 1987 Issue of Generations:

THERE ARE TWO WAYS TO RECORD THE RESEARCHED FAMILY DATA :

* Collecting the data on cards, charts, sheets or on computer discs.

* Having it painted and inscribed on vellum, placed with the correct connections in form of a tree, illuminated with coats of arms and sceneries.

On a family tree you take the prominent part on top of the tree and trace your ancestors down the trunk of the tree, along the branches and view the coats of arms of places of origin or special importance to your family, study the scenery depicting the place of origin of your family.

HOW I SOLVED MY GENEALOGICAL PROBLEM [Edited By: Heather Hobbs]

One of the most intriguing stories to unfold at the M.G.S. Seminar '87 was the one that Don STEEL told of his friend Gerald HAMILTON-EDWARDS, who apparently had "misplaced" one of his gr-grandfathers for ten years, thinking he was from Wales and eventually finding him in Scotland. You will immediately recognize Mr. Hamilton-Edwards as the author of the very popular manual "In Search of British Ancestry". What a story! And what a surprise! If an acknowledged expert can be lost for ten years, then the rest of us are not doing too badly with our share of mistakes.

The problem solving aspect of genealogy interests me. In particular, what is interesting is not so much "the right process in theory", but the odd circumstances that actually got results. Here then, are a couple of examples of M.G.S. members overcoming some stumbling block in their research.

Bev KIENDL's breakthrough could perhaps be in a class of "amazing stories", but basically it was keen observation and good timing that brought success. Briefly, she explains:

- 1) Began my genealogical search (c1981) with a simple chart written by my paternal grandmother, Marjorie SMITLEMAN SMITH. Top of the chart listed my third gr-grandfather as "Sea Captain SCOTT [married] Mary LYLE ["Lyle Syrup People"]. My mother explained that there was, or had been, a company named Lyle that manufactured table syrup. I did not pursue this line until,
- 2) Christmas season 1983, I came upon a shelf of "Lyle's Golden Syrup" in the fine foods section at Eaton's. I bought some and put it under the tree for my parents at Christmas. We were interested and thrilled to know that the company still existed.
- 3) My mother wrote to the address on the top of the jar - Tate & Lyle, Leon House, Croydon, CR9 3N4 England. She told them of our genealogical interest and asked if they knew of someone with whom we could correspond.
- 4) The prompt reply consisted of a nice letter and a hard cover book entitled "Sugar and All That - A History of Tate and Lyle", by Anthony HUGILL, published by Gentry Books, London, 1978. Also, received genealogical charts on which I found a Mary LYLE (1818-1884) whose second husband was Capt. Scott. Mary's brother Abram Lyle III (1820-1891) founded Abram Lyle & Sons (1865) Sugar Refinery in Scotland.
- 5) From other sources, I learned that my second gr-grandmother Margaret PATERSON SCOTT (1839-1905) was the daughter of Capt. James Scott and Marjorie PATERSON. Apparently, Capt. Scott's marriage to Mary Lyle was a second one for both parties, so I am not descended from the Lyles. Also, apparently, Margaret Paterson Scott (Mrs. William STOVE) held her step-mother in regard because she named her third daughter Mary LYLE STOVE.
- 6) Conclusion: Sometimes inquiries that seem a "shot in the dark" are the ones that bring the most surprising results.

Editor's Note: The 316 page book from Tate & Lyle was a centenary project for the firm since Sir Henry TATE started his refinery in London in 1878. Sir Henry became quite a benefactor and is the same Tate of the famous art gallery, The Tate Gallery. This book is a fascinating history of sugar refining in general. The business has had an incredibly complex past, including very radical changes in refining, unending bureaucratic interference and tales of the slave trade and pirates in the Caribbean. The logo of the firm features a lion with a swarm of bees buzzing near and the company also boasts the special symbol "By Appointment to Her Majesty the Queen".

I like to think of this next anecdote as "Grandpa Pete issues a challenge". I have researched my husband's Swedish families since my marriage, partly since the North American documents were more accessible than mine. I pestered Raney's Grandpa Pete (Peter Richard PETERSON 1895-1982) every time we met and since he was not one to drone on about his family (he had run away from Wisconsin as a young teenager to become a cowboy in Canada), he griped that it was probably useless to try to find anything. I knew that secretly he would be thrilled to know more, especially about his mother who had died when he was only eight years old. I interpreted this as a challenge!

- 1) Grandpa gave me the name and address of a cousin in Seattle, Washington, a son of his mother Martha's sister, Minnie CARLSON. This cousin had kept in contact with the Carlsons more since his mother had lived longer. There had been quite a few of Martha's siblings who had come to the U.S.A., including Anna in Minnesota, a Carl in Oregon and a Henning in St. Louis, Missouri. When Henning died (a bachelor) in 1966, there was an inheritance document of great genealogical value listing all of his nieces and nephews. The cousin, Mr. Johnson, sent some immigration documents from his mother. One was an "utuandrade - kantrakt", a contract for passage from Goteborg to Superior, Wisconsin (where the Petersons were living). The other document was the key to obtaining genealogical information from Sweden, the very valuable "Flyttningsbetyg" certificate from the originating parish in Sweden stating who you were, where you were emigrating to and that you were free to go. These documents were made out by the pastor of the parish.
- 2) Immediately, I tried to translate the document with a Swedish dictionary, but got a bit lost, to say the least! Meanwhile, I had obtained a marriage certificate from Wisconsin for "Martha and John Peterson", who were actually Marta Erika Carlson (a.k.a. CARLSDOTTER in Sweden) and Johan Berndt Peterson married December 15, 1894. Marta's parents were listed as Carl NILSON and Katharina NILSON.
- 3) I had the idea of asking for a translation of the "Flyttningsbetyg" from the Swedish Consulate which they graciously agreed to do. Now I could see all the place names on it - Torps Parish, Province of Vasternorrland, Sweden. Unfortunately, I was still under the delusion that since I knew Johan's birthdate, full name and parents, I could get information on him faster - so I sent at least six letters to agencies in Sweden that could not answer any of my inquiries. Finally, I sent a letter to the archives for Vasternorrland with a copy of the "Flyttningsbetyg" [correct procedure!].
- 4) I received a letter from Sweden (in English) describing everything of genealogical value that had happened to the family of Carl NILSSON while they were residing in Torp Parish, the day they moved from one parish to another, the birthdays of all children born in the parish, the birthdates (and place) of the parents, their wedding, and the dates that some of the children emigrated (and place). All this information is extracted from the "husforhorslängder", or household examination rolls, enumerated by the pastor. It is a wonder that these pastors had time for anything else! Further inquiries detailed the rest of the family's movements throughout other parishes. Ironically, out of the total of thirteen children born to Carl Nilsson and Katarina Erika ANDERSDOTTER, ten emigrated to the U.S.A., two died young and the other has no descendants - so there are no Carlsons of that line possible to contact in Sweden.

I lost no time in sharing my new-found knowledge with the contributors to the research and Grandpa Pete was quite pleased his challenge had been met. Four years after the "Flyttningsbetyg" episode, and sad to say, after Grandpa's demise, we heard from one of Anna Carlson's descendants in California who we were very pleased to exchange information with. The bonus for this contact was that this third cousin was descended from the eldest sibling of the Carlson clan, so her family had many amazing photographs from the 19th and early 20th century, including a handsome Peter Peterson in his W.W.I army uniform and the first photograph of Marta Erika (Carlsdotter) Peterson every seen by her Canadian descendants.

M.G.S. Editor's Note: It is indeed a pleasure to learn of the 'successes' of fellow researchers through the M.G.S. facilities. It is equally a pleasure to receive words of praise for the time-consuming task of volunteering for the benefit of the patrons of the M.G.S. Resource Centre. I'm sure many will join me in sending a big bouquet of "THANKS" to all those who fill the genealogical 'volunteer' shoes of the Manitoba Genealogical Society. Thank You! Thank You! Thank You! And 'thanks' to Mavis for her unending help!

"Not to know what happened before we were born is to remain perpetually a child. For what is the worth of a human life unless it is woven into the life of our ancestors ..."

They Came For The Future. Teulon and District History Book Comm., 1983. Hardcover. xi, 527 pgs. Illus. Index. ISBN 0-88925-318-8. Avail. from Teulon, Box 69, Teulon, Mb. R0C 3B0. -- "Through sketches, stories and biographical reports, we have portrayed the lives and people of Teulon in an effort to show the Cultural diversity of this area which, in retrospect, is a replica of the Canadian mosaic.", from the foreward by E.T. Revel. The book does just that! Some special points are the Pot Pourri of events taken from the ARGUS (newspaper) and minutes of the Village and Chamber of Commerce covering 1884 to 1978. There are also good maps and lists showing the location of settlers, schools, etc.

Come Into Our Heritage, Centennial History of Argyle, Baldure, Manitoba: R.M. of Argyle, 1981. Hardcover. 732 pgs. Illus. Index. Avail. John E. Thomas, Reeve, Box 40 Baldur, Mb. R0K 0B0. -- Another community history book "...to record for posterity the story of the land and the people who settled and lived in Argyle, since the year 1882...". Charts and maps are excellent; one set of ownership maps show original owners, a second shows registered land owners in 1922, and the third show the 1980 owners. Community histories, including churches and cemeteries, are given with each school district. Over half the book is on family histories.

They Stopped At A Good Place: A History of the Beausejour, Brokenhead, Garson and Tyndall Area of Manitoba 1875-1981, Ed. by Michael Czuboka. Beausejour-Brokenhead Historical Book Comm., c1982. Hardcover, xv, 1075 pgs., Illus., Index. Avail. R.M. of Brokenhead, Beausejour, Mb. R0E 0C0 -- Quoting from former Governor General Edward Schreyer (who was born and raised in the area cover in the book), in his foreward, "... every community has something interesting in its origins and its early development". This book starts with those early days in Brokenhead R.M. and concludes with mini family histories of many of the students attending school in Beausejour, Garson, Tyndall in 1980-1981, compiled from 'family tree' sheets distributed to all students. In between are many interesting pages of all community and family history. Families are not listed in alphabetical order, but there is an index.

The Rural Municipality of Rhineland 1884-1984. Volost and Municipality by Gerhard John Enns. Altona: R.M. of Rhineland, 1984. Hardcover, xii, 302 pgs. Illus., Index. Avail. R0G 0B0 -- The original Rhineland settlement started in the 1870's in the District of Douglas and encompassed the eastern townships of the present day R.M. of Stanley, as well as the west end of present day R.M. of Rhineland. Essentially, a history of the German Mennonites settlers from Russia, setting up a traditional Colony or Volost administration and the subsequent reformulation of this lifestyle due to such external events as the War of 1914-18, educational ideas, technological innovations and the Depression of the 1930's. There are maps of both the Western and East Reserves with original village sites named. Does not have a family histories section, but many persons are cited and there is an Index.

Gleanings of the Past. Glenora Comm. Boosters History Book Comm, n.d. Hardcover, v, 237 pgs. Illus. Avail. Mrs. Gwen Sutton, President, Glenora Comm. Boosters History Book Comm., Glenora, Mb. R0K 0Y0 -- This book is divided into chapters on the various districts within the area: - Mararinghurst, Glenora, Wigton, Zephre, Dry River, Excelsior (originally Ballyduff). Brief biographical sketches are given for those who served from the Boer to the Vietnam Wars, and in peacetime; and for the teachers at Glenora School. Teachers of other S.D. are also listed as they are known. The editor, Barry Moore puts into words a thought that we, as genealogists and family historians, can appreciate: "To the people whose dreams created the stimulus for this book, to the people who took the time to write family and area histories, and to those who assembled this wealth of material, we owe a debt and a responsibility - a responsibility to report and record what's happening now for our children's children".

Darlingford Saga: 1870-1970. Darlingford, Mb.: Darlingford Historical Book Comm., 1972. Paperback, 418 pgs. Illus. -- We are grateful that Mrs. Jordon, a member of the Book Committee and now 87 years old, had this extra copy to donate to us. It is now out of print. Darlingford is in Pembina Munc. and this book covers the area of Southern Manitoba just south of the area outlined in Pembina Country. Darlingford is situated near the Old International Boundary Trail which was just south of today's No. 3 Hwy. The foreward is by Dr.J.E. Robbins, Canadian Ambassador to the Holy See in 1972 whose family came to Darlingford area in 1906 when John was a child and, as he says, "they were not the real pioneers". Those had come 25 or more years earlier. This book records stories of those early families and much factual information on various areas in the Pembina Valley. There is a list of those who received Pioneer Recognition Pins in 1970 and an Index of names. Because of its proximity to the United States and with the unregulated border crossings in the early part of this century, it might be worth your while to check with such Manitoba books for ancestors who 'disappeared' from North Dakota.

Patience, Price and Progress, Eddystone and District Historical Soc., 1983. Hardcover. vii, 508 pgs. Illus. ISBN 0-88925-253-X. $30.00 + $2.00 postage. Avail.: Metta Johnson, Eddystone, Mb. R0L 0S0 -- This book covers an area about 27 miles westward from Lake Manitoba Narrows, and 30 miles from south to north in the L.G.D. of Alonsa. One slightly different feature that I like is that the family histories section is divided into the districts in which people lived: Antwerpia, Bay End, Cayer, Eddystone, Elkdale, Lonely Lake, Mooredale, Reykjavik, Shergrove, Valpoy, Wapah. There is also a list of the School Districts (pg. 51) and their locations: Antwerpia, Asham Point, Ebb & Flo, Eddystone, Larkspru, Lonely Lake, Precourt, Reykjavik, Sunland, Tamarack Lake, Thibert, Thornton, Valpoy, Shergrove. There is a map of the district and a surname index.

Mossgiel Memories. Elkhorn, Mb. Mossgiel Guild History Book Comm., 1981. Hardcover, 165 pgs. Illus. ISBN 0-88925-240-8. $25.00. Avail.: Ms. Irene P. Cousin, Mossgiel History Book Comm., Elkhorn, Mb. R0M 0N0 -- Mossgiel Protestant S.D. #602, originally known as McGregor School, opened in 1889 and was located 6 miles west of the town of Elkhorn, Mb., but only a few miles from the Saskatchewan border. The district was originally included in County Dennis, but by 1884, had become part of the R.M. of Wallace. There is a list of those who registered for early homesteads (1882-1896) and a diagram showing original owners and present owners of the part of Twps. 11 and 12 in Range 29 that is included in the district. There are lists of teachers and pupils, and family histories some for the Saskatchewan families whose children attended the Mossgiel School.

Twixt Hill and Vale. A story of Rathwell and surrounding district. Rathwell Historical Comm., 1970. Reprint 1977. Hardcover, 371 pgs. Illus. ISBN 0-912213-43-X. Info. John E. Parsons, Rathwell, Mb. R0G 1S0 -- The story of Rathwell and surrounding district was started as a project of the Women's Institute and continued by the Rathwell History Comm. It covers the area around Rathwell, including Indianford, Bell and Indian Gardens districts and Cherry Valley, Gordon Union, Lees and McCreery Schools. Situated on the old Yellowquill Trail and in the original County of Norfolk, the area has since been divided into the R.M.s of North Norfolk, South Norfolk and Victoria. Many pioneer family histories are included and the addendum of the 1977 ed. brings the family histories up to that date.

CHANGE OF NAME - the Winnipeg Manitoba Genealogical Library (LDS) at 700 London will, in future, be known as the "Family History Centre". The local Family History Centre is one of over 800 such Centres throughout the world - each has access to the vast collection of genealogical records housed in the main library located in Salt Lake City.

The final chapter is the Baldur Hospital Birth Record 1950-1985. In all, a wonderful record of the dedicated health care workers of Argyle.

BOOK REVIEWS [Reviewed By: Louisa Shermerhorn]

History of Sandy Lake and District (Cover Title: Sandy Lake Our Roots), Comp. By Sandy Lake Historical Society, Sandy Lake, Mb. c1984. 518 pgs. Illus. Available from the Society. -- The Foreward of this history book notes that "to live only in the present is to deny ones humanity", and with this in mind, the Committee set out to give the "insight into who and what we think we are, and how we got that way". The book lives up to their expectations as it is a comprehensive history of the District just south of Riding Mountain National park in the Harrison Munc. It includes both local family histories and summer cottage owner histories. There are maps showing homesteads and lists of early settlers, although no Index. The print is small, but very clear and easily read. If your ancestors lived, or holidayed, in the District, the book would be of interest you.

Flin Flon, A Visual History, 1933-1983 Comp. by Stephanie Jarvis, Lois Burke, and Joyce Henderson. Flin Flon, Mb.: Flin Flon Jubilee Comm., c1983. 208 pgs. Illus. ISBN 0-88925-439-7. -- Anyone with roots in Flin Flon would want this book. Parades, hockey teams, a Burn's Dinner, Council Members, veterans, students - all these and more are pictured. All pictures have captions, and the majority of the people are named. The pictures will bring back nostalgic memories to those who lived in the District - and even to those who have never been to Flin Flon! The compilers have produced a fitting remembrance to Flin Flon's Jubilee Year.

Rural Municipality of Gimli. Historical Highlights 1887-1987, Comp. by R.M. of Gimli Centennial "Homecoming" Committee. No Publishing data. Illus. Maps. -- This small format, limp cover book is 'jam packed' full of names, incidents, and pictures. After an introductory chapter on municipal development the rest of the book is divided into chapters on the twelve Rural School Districts. As we remember the school was the pivot of the district in pioneer days and thus, we find here a micro-history of each district. For instance for Berlo S.D. #1482, the introductory paragraph reads, "Mathias GOTTFRIED, Michael GOTTFRIED, Adam REICHERET, John FRANZ, Martin EIERS, Kristian HAAS, Jacob HAAS, Karl SCHNERCH and Adam KARST were among the first to come to Berlo. A German speaking people, they came from Brukental, Uhnow, Michalowka, and other small agricultural villages of Austria. They departed Hamberg, Germany, April 11, 1903 on the German steamship, Assyria. It was a three week trip to Halifax and then by train to Montreal and Winnipeg. The journey continued on foot to Selkirk and on to Gimli and their homestead." Not all chapters have such a 'genealogical slant', but all contain detailed data. A must if your family lived in Gimli rural.

Pembina Country. Land of Promise, Ed. by A. Dorine Brown. Miami, Mb.: Miami Museum Inc., 1974, SBN 0-919212-45-X. 116 pgs. Illus. End maps. $40.00 + postage. -- Ms. Brown, a school librarian, edited this book as a help for students doing assignments on the early history of this area between the Pembina Escarpment and the Red River in Southern Manitoba. The book goes far beyond that as it is a well documented account of the history and some of its pioneers. In the author's words, "It is an attempt to provide an historical sketch based on previously recorded information, on original manuscripts of the pioneers, and on family memoirs written in tribute to the pioneers." As a part of the original province of Manitoba in 1870, some of the early settlements outlined are Boyne River, Tobacco Creek, Nelsonville and Mountain City. If you have, or had, family in this area of Manitoba, the book is a real bargain, and it is a real pleasure to read.

M.G.S. EDITOR'S NOTE: The majority of these books reviewed on these pages have been donated by the respective parties responsible for their publication. M.G.S. wishes to express a 'bouquet of gratitude' for their generosity which has, in turn, broadened the resources available for the Society's patrons.

BOOK REVIEWS

Journey In The Footsteps of Our Forefathers, Dianne Lynn Olmstead, Editor. Christian Press, Winnipeg, Mb. 1986. 226 pgs. $50.00 @ from: Mrs. Rosalie Schwartz, 110 Degrass Bay, Winnipeg, Mb. R2G 1Y9 [Reviewed By: Lori Frank] -- This book, the saga of the Carlson family is very well-written and informative. It was a pleasure to read as the text flowed along nicely and was easy to follow. The editor has given background information on the counties of origin depicting the possible lifestyles of the family's ancestors. The text is amply illustrated and gives us a wealth of details about the family. A bibliography and an index are also included.

The following two books have been donated to M.G.S. by the Four Districts History Group, Mrs. Neil McCaskill, Box 122, Gladstone, Mb. R0J 0T0. [Reviewed By: Louisa Shermerhorn]:

The Same Faith For 100 Years, Ed. Lil McCaskill. 1986. 72 pgs. Illus. $27.00 @. -After four years of planning, 100 years of history has been written - it is the history of the Anglican Church in Gladstone. The years 1882-1982 are relived through words and photographs throughout. From the old church on Cameron Street, across from the Baptist Church, to the construction of the present church in 1904; through the lives of families, clergy, and bishops, the book is full of interesting stories of the people and the church.

Golden Memories, Four Districts History Group. Winnipeg: Inter-Collegiate Press, 1980. 464 pgs. Illus. $27.00 @ -- This book was prepared to record the lives of the pioneers of the School Districts of Golden Stream, Palestine, Steele Bridge and Woodside in the R.M. of Westbourne, Mb. There are voters lists, newspaper excerpts, homesteaders lists and maps for the whole municipality. Each School District is done separately, with local family histories for each section. Besides the family histories, there are numerous reminiscences of early ministers and school teachers. There is no index. The book is well illustrated and will be a good purchase for anyone who has lived or had ancestors from this area of Manitoba.

Rainbow's End (Alonsa: History Book Society, Alonsa, Mb. R0H 0A0) 1985. 240 pgs. Illus. [Reviewed By: Louisa Shermerhorn] -- "Rainbow's End" is of the Kinosota - Alonsa District of Manitoba in the L.G.D. of Alonsa on the west shore of Lake Manitoba. The area was not opened for homesteads until the early 1900's and the book is a good detailed history of the area from 1923 to 1983. It is dedicated to its pioneers with the acknowledgement that "The progress we have made is the fruit of the faith our parents had in this - our Land". Another particular dedication is "Laurels for the Women". While all community history books print family histories, this is the first one I have seen which has noted that women played an equal part in coping with the hardships of pioneer life. "When you read histories from now on, and the first paragraph tells you the couple had 10 children, use your imagination and give a large measure of credit to the mother who ran the household. She deserved it!" There is no index, and while the print is small, it is clear and easily read. A good purchase if your ancestors settled in this area.

Binscarth Memories. Binscarth History Comm., c1984. 281 pgs. Index. Illus. ISBN 088925-436-2. $30.00 @ - Avail. from: Mrs. Fanny L. Patton, Chairman, History Book Committee, Binscarth, Mb. R0J 0G0 [Reviewed By: Louisa Shermerhorn] -- Another well presented book on one of Manitoba's more westerly towns in the R.M. of Russell. Situated on the old Pelly Trail, settlement began in 1881 and there is a good outline of history from then to 1984. Family biographies are listed alphabetically. Did you know that Binscarth is a Norse word meaning 'bin' - a farm, and 'scarth' - a cleft in the hills, and was brought to the Orkney Islands by the Norsemen in the early 1500's?

Steel and Grass Roots, 1882-1982, Elkhorn and District Historical Society, Elkhorn, Mb. R0M 0N0, c1982. $25.00, plus $2.00 postage. Available from the Elkhorn Historical Society, c/o Ms. L. Clarke. — This is another fine local history for our library. Those who had pioneer ancestors in the present R.M. of Wallace (or just over the border in Saskatchewan) will find this an enjoyable read, as well as possibly finding some facts to fill some gaps in their family history.

Lovely Woods of Clandeboye. Clandeboye, Mb.: Community Club. Illus. Donor: Barbara Page. — This little book on an area north of Winnipeg on the west-side of the Red River is a collection of stories and reminiscences of pioneers. It has maps of the area residents for 1900 and for 1967. There is no Index or Table of Contents, but everyone will want to read the book through anyway! It is a delightful and informative book. Many early residents of the communities of Clandeboye, Petersfield (earlier called St. Louis), Wakefield School District and the postal district of Kipigon are mentioned.

Story of The Church at Clandeboye, by Julia C. McDonald, Clandeboye, Mb. United Church, n.d. 23 pgs. Illus. Cover Title: Clandeboye United Church. Donor: Christina Grieve, Clandeboye United Church. — Another small, but very informative book of the Presbyterian (later United) Church at Clandeboye. The church was built in 1901 and this is a detailed account of that event and the history of the church since. Some of those preparing the building for services: the pulpit was built by Jack WILLIAMS and dressed by Mrs. KINGSBERRY; the pulpit Bible was donated by Miss LOGAN; the first organist was Jeannie VANCE, and so on. Bertha JOHNSTON says that Clandeboye meant a quality of life one would never forget. As both Clandeboye books seem to be out of print, we are grateful to the donors for these copies.

Pioneers Perseverance and Progress. Cypress River 1885-1985, Comp. by Cypress River History Book Committee. Cypress River, Mb.: Cypress River Community Club, Inc., c1986. xviii, 587 pgs. Illus. ISBN 0-88633-007-6. Avail.: Cypress River History Book Comm., Box 111, Cypress River, Mb. R0K 0P0 $45.00 + $3.00 postage. — The book of the Cypress River area covers parts of the Municipalities of Argyle, Lorne, South Cypress and Victoria, and incorporates a part of the original Post Office, but when the railroad went through in 1886, it went south of Littleton and the site of the town of Cypress River was surveyed. Each aspect of community life, such as schooling, veterans, business, has a separate chapter and the large family histories section is arranged alphabetically by family surname. There is a list of those who attended the Cypress River Centennial Home Coming in 1985, but no complete Index. An excellent book for those who have, or had, family in the area.

Blumenfeld. Where Land And People Meet, by Irene Friesen Petkaw and Peter A. Petkaw. Winkler, Mb.: Blumenfeld Historical Committee, c1981. 264 pgs. Illus. Index. ISBN 0-88925-259-9. Donor: J.N. Neufeld, Blumenfeld Historical Comm. Avail.: Blumenfeld Hist. Comm., Box 466, Winkler, Mb. R0G 2X0. $19.95 + $3.00 postage. — Lawrence Klippenstein, historian at the Mennonite Heritage Centre in Winnipeg, has written the Forward and in it he has stated what the story of this book means, "In telling its story the community of Blumenfeld has done something very important. It has shared a significant experience of life together, and thus opened itself to other groups as well. For resident and former families of the village this will be particularly meaningful... It is an exciting glimpse for outsiders to catch the unique way of living which these Mennonite village families have created and sustained". Anyone who had Mennonite ancestors in Manitoba will find much background information, and many will find family histories. Those who do not have Mennonite ancestors will find the book informative and interesting.

BOOK REVIEWS [Lori Frank]

Evergreen Reflections. Nor-West Historical Society, Box 124, Vermilion Bay, On. P0V 2V0. 1986. ISBN 0-88925-528-8. 478 pgs. $45.00 -- This is a community history book of the Waldo, Vermilion Bay, Eagle River area. The text is in the usual setup, with brief histories of the areas and then family histories. The book contains an index and is very amply illustrated. A must read for those with early connections in the area, like myself!

Riding Mountain, Yesterday and Today. Emma Ringstrom. 1981. Published by Prairie Publishing Company, Winnipeg, Mb. ISBN 0-919576-26-5. 111 pgs. -- This small paperback is a well written and documented history of Riding Mountain National Park. The book covers the park area from the days when it was a hunting ground for the Indians through its development to the present day. It is easy reading and contains many names of persons who had dealings with the park.

Quest In Roots. Brookdale Historical Society. 1986. 565 pgs. -- This is a community history of the Munc. of North Cypress, including Brookdale, Ingelow and Mentmore. It has all of the usual features of a community history and includes several maps of the area. The family history section is extensive, but does not contain an index. The first part of the book details the area very well. Recommended for those with an interest in the area.

The Drysdales, Pioneers of Flos, 1788-1985. Madeline Johnston Quesnelle, Phelpston, On. 1985. 140 pgs. -- This is a cute family history book, privately printed and published by the author. It starts with a brief chapter on the origins of the family and continues with individual pictures and stories. It is really in the form of a family scrapbook with pictures and writeups on almost every member of the family.

Feilberg Family History, 1686-1986. Lorna Feilberg Annell, Box 484, Ste. Anne, Mb. R0A 1R0. 1987. 158 pgs. -- This is a history of the Danish family of Feilberg. It contains pedigree and lineage charts, as well as individual biographies of the people. It has many photographs, including many older ones. It is, again, in a sort of a scrapbook form, but it is easy to read.

A Backward Glance. Mr. Jacob H. Hildebrand, Box 203, Crystal City, Mb. R0K 0N0. 1982. ISBN 0-919673-22-8. 136 pgs. -- This is a small paperback telling the story of the author from his early days in the Ukrainian Mennonite villages to rural farm life in Manitoba. The book is useful in learning about our early settlers lives and how families lived in our province's early days. Mr. Hildebrand wrote the book in answer to his granddaughter's query regarding his 'whole life'! The book is very interesting and easy to read, with a few photos to illustrate the story.

The Three Brothers from the Ukraine - Ivon, Wasyl and Harry Harapiak and Their Descendants in Canada (1858-1986). By: Mabel Kamfoly-St. Angelo. 1986. Copies-R-Us, Niagara Falls, On. ISBN 0-920001-14-9. A limited edition from the author. -- This massive undertaking on the family history of the Harapiaks in Canada is an excellent book! The author has published certificates and land deeds in her book to prove her theory and throughout the book, she has quoted her sources of information. There are numerous photographs to accompany the text. As a person interested in publishing a family history, I feel that this book will set the standard. Research work has been undertaken for 15 years and the work is reflected on every page. The only concern would be that if anyone who is not familiar with genealogy may find it difficult to follow the numbering system. This book is a must for anyone planning to write a family history.

Elder Enns "OHM Franz" by F.F. Enns, 74 Linacre Road, Winnipeg, Mb. R3T 3G6. Translated from German by Margaret (Enns) Frederickson, 1979. 112 pgs. Illus. -- In the Foreword, Prof. Al Reimer, University of Winnipeg, says that the book is a "... fitting and loving memorial from a son to his father (that) took the form of a well-written biography...". It is also the story of a group of Mennonite people in Russia before their subsequent move to Canada in the 1920s. The last half of the book is specifically on the trials and triumphs of the itinerant minister (Elder Enns) serving the scattered families of his Russian Mennonite compatriots in south-western Manitoba (Lena, Whitewater, Winkler) in the 1930s.

Icelandic River Saga, Nelson S. Gerrard. Arborg, Mb.: Saga Publications and Research, 1985. 838 pgs. Illus. $50.00 Cdn.; $36.00 U.S. + $4.00 postage U.S. ($6.00 Cdn. postage to countries other than Canada and U.S.)

AND

The Icelandic Heritage, Nelson S. Gerrard, Arborg: Saga Publications, 1986. 128 pgs. Illus. $32.00 Can. or $27.00 U.S. incl. postage within N.America

Both books are available from the author, Saga Publications & Research, Box 925, Arborg, Mb. R0C 0A0. — Those with Icelandic ancestry will find a wealth of information in these books. Those with no Icelandic ancestors will be fascinated with the history and culture presented. The author's words best describe the contents of the books, "While the first publication contains a great deal of genealogical information, as well as background information on Icelandic emigration and settlements in America, the second book includes genealogical charts intended for those wishing to record their ancestral line." "Icelandic River Saga" includes genealogies of many of the settlers of the Icelandic River - Riverton area of Manitoba. These settlers were the forefathers of many of the Icelandic families who now live in various other parts of Canada and the U.S. The Index lists Pioneers and area residents. Another good record of a specific group of immigrants to Manitoba.

Currently, Mr. Phillips is working on compiling Newsletters for some of the surnames he has gathered information about. He requestes input from anyone with an interest in the following surnames: SMITH (John Smith & Anna ROY); PETTIT; GAGE; PHILLIPS; SHELLINGTON; KERFOOT; BULLER; CHAPPIE; JONES; HUFFMAN. Both this and the St. Pierre-July's book should help Manitobans better appreciate the roots from which they came.

CORRECTION: Vol. 12 No. 2 (pg. 31) - should read "Historical Memories of the Past 1596 - 1984".

BOOK REVIEWS [Reviewed By: Louisa Shermerhorn]

The Rural Municipality of Dufferin 1880-1980, comp. and ed. by June M. Watson, with assistance of the History Book Comm. and Council of the R.M. of Dufferin, 1982. Hardcover. xvi, 816 pgs. illus. ISBN 0-88633-002-5, Avail. Council of R.M. of Duffering, Box 100, Carman, Mb. R0G 0J) — Another comprehensive local history book. If any of your 'roots' are in this area, the book is a must with its detailed analysis of every aspect of the growth of the municipality. There are complete lists, and charts showing original settlers and electoral lists. There are separate chapters for communities, for school districts, and for churches and cemeteries. Agriculture is a featured chapter. The families section are in alphabetical order.

Oak Leaves: A History of the Oak Bluff District, Oak Bluff Women's Institute, 1984. Hardcover. iv, 422 pgs., Illus. Index. ISBN 0-88925-440-0 Avail. Oak Bluff Women's Institute, Oak Bluff, Mb. R0G 1N0 — A well researched history of the growth of a small village just outside Winnipeg. Chronicles of the early days from about 1870 when the first settler (Benjamin Cassellman) arrived, through the naming of the Post Office in William West's home in 1889, to the more recent housing development of the 1980's. There are family histories and a good map of MacDonald R.M. showing relation of areas. Many family names are mentioned in connection with the growth of the area, and although not in the family histories section, an Index makes them readily accessible.

FORT LA REINE MUSEUM - A GENEALOGICAL SOURCE

[By: Roy McLeod M.G.S. #715]

People who are interested in genealogy are always on the lookout for new sources of information.

In June 1987, I had occasion to visit the Fort La Reine Museum and Pioneer Village, located two miles east of Portage La Prairie on Hwy. #1, and owned by the R.M. of Portage La Prairie.

While this was not my first visit, it was the first time I was to meet Mr. Del MARTIN, the museum's manager and curator, and with his help I found, on display (usually under glass but sometimes openly displayed), such genealogical treasures as family Bibles, letters, personal papers and even the odd family chart. Less professional efforts, but still a treasure, in the form of son, father, grandfather and gr-grandfather charts. A further survey of the museum found us looking at honour rolls, plaques, employee records and the odd copy of a school attendance sheet.

Mr. Martin receives requests by letter and calls, and he does his best to answer them. He related to me one story about a gentleman travelling a long way to research a complete set of family diaries which are usually in a glass case in the main building. In another incident, Mr. Martin had received requests from two separate individuals of the same family and was able to put them in touch with one another. Recently, the University of Brandon gained permission from the museum and catalogued his collection, including some papers that have been stored but never on display.

For those people whose forebearers came from places like High Bluff, Edwin, Burnside, West Prospect, Poplar Point, Oakville and other communities in the area of Portage La Prairie, I would recommend a visit to the Fort La Reine Museum. I am confident that it would be worth your while.
